

Call for Membership

The South Asia network of Economic research Institutes (SANEI) is a regional initiative to foster networking amongst economic research institutions in South Asia. Since its inception in 1998, SANEI has been engaged in promoting individual and collaborative research on issues that are of particular relevance to South Asia. With a view to expanding its outreach, SANEI is inviting applications for membership from economic research institutions in the South Asian region. Scholars from the member institutions are eligible to compete for research grants in the annual regional research competitions organized by SANEI. For more information about SANEI, visit our website: <http://www.saneinetwork.net>.

The interested institutions may apply by returning the enclosed membership form along with a cover letter to:
